

RON CRISTÓBAL NIÑA

Cristóbal Niña is a premium rum blend from the Dominican Republic tropically aged for 8 to 12 years in ex-Bourbon cask. Niña was originally names Santa Clara but was nicknamed Niña. The ship followed Columbus on several of his adventures towards America. Due to the mutiny in the colony and the lack of funds, Columbus had to sell the ship. The ship's destiny is unknown.

Nose: Incredibly complex and balanced. The bouquet is sprinkled with unripe strawberries and flowery notes, rounded off by hints of fresh oak and crème brûlée with a caramelized sugar top.

Palate: Lush flavors of mint chocolate and marshmallows. The finish is gentle and soft with notes of vanilla leaving a silky mouthfeel.
