

ENGLISH HARBOUR SMALL BATCH MADEIRA CASK

This was created in honour English Harbour's Founders who came from the island of Madeira, a sovereign state of Portugal. This Madeira Finish is held very dear to their hearts and so in the creation of their third extension, they wanted to make it very special. The casks were sourced from Blandy's and unlike their first two Finishes, where only one type of wine cask was used, they used four different type of Madeira cask for this blend. The casks are a mix of Bual, Sercial, Malvasia and Tinta, which gives this Finish a complexity that is not easily describable.
