WORTHY PARK 109

Worthy Park 109 is a 100% Copper Pot Distilled rum designed to be your go-to choice when you're looking for that higher-proof, full-bodied, and flavorful Pot-Still Jamaican Rum. Composed of a blend of our light ester rum aged three years in ex-bourbon casks, and unaged higher ester rum, Worthy Park 109 doesn't hold back on the heat or the flavor. Bottled at a whopping 54.5%, it's a bold and unique take on a classic style of Jamaica rum. Perfect for mixing in your top-shelf tiki, tropical, or classic cocktails, this 100% pot-still, dark rum is true in style to its historical Jamaican origins.
